

QUANTUM-CLASS DYNAMIC DINING OFFERS A NEW MAIN EVENT EACH NIGHT

Fresh Approach Puts Spin on Main Dining Room where Guests have Total Flexibility and Choice

MIAMI – Royal Caribbean International is empowering guests with choice and flexibility through Dynamic Dining. As part of this new dining program, the traditional main dining room that has long been synonymous with cruise ship dining has been completely reimaged onboard Quantum-class ships. Inspired by the experience of dining in the world’s most cosmopolitan cities, Quantum of the Seas and Anthem of the Seas features a selection of five complimentary main restaurants, each with their own distinctive menu and ambiance, all designed to immerse guests in new tastes, sights and settings each night of their cruise vacation.

- American Icon Grill – A classic American road trip for the taste buds, guests will discover favorite comfort foods with a few creative twists, including New Orleans’ famous gumbo, New England clam chowder and Southern buttermilk fried chicken, among others. A casual and welcoming atmosphere is infused with nostalgic décor and striking visuals of American icons and sweeping natural landscapes, as well as accents emulating the classic American roadster. Located on Deck 4, American Icon Grill is complimentary and open for breakfast, lunch and dinner. It seats 430 guests, and attire is smart casual.
- Chic – Stylish never tasted so good at this sleek and modern restaurant. The height of contemporary cuisine is realized in a visually stunning environment where the finest, freshest ingredients, such as beef rib-eye, lamb chops, and Mediterranean sea bass are paired with sauces made from scratch and evolved for a modern palate. Located on Deck 3, Chic is complimentary and open for dinner. It seats 434 guests, and attire is smart casual.
- Silk – The greatest characters in the history of exotic cuisine come together at this Pan-Asian restaurant where the flavors are as diverse and nuanced as the Far East itself. Guests will enjoy an eclectic yet balanced menu inspired by Chinese, Japanese, Thai, Vietnamese and Indian cooking, such as a slow-cooked lamb curry, sake-glazed salmon and teriyaki steak. Located on Deck 4, Silk is complimentary and open for dinner. It seats 434 guests, and attire is smart casual.

- The Grande – The most elegant and sophisticated of the main dining restaurants, every night is formal night at The Grande. A nod to a bygone era of classic European ocean liners when dining was a time honored ritual, this opulent venue features a menu of classic dishes ranging from beef Wellington and chicken a l'orange, to roasted scallops and sole almondine. Located on Deck 3, The Grande is complimentary and open for dinner. It seats 432 guests, and formal attire is required.
- Coastal Kitchen – Exclusively for suite guests, Coastal Kitchen fuses Mediterranean influences with the unmatched riches of California's bountiful farmlands. The menu exudes pure freshness, with selections ranging from Pacific Coast favorites like sea bass ceviche, to Mediterranean-inspired tastes like Serrano ham, whipped goat cheese and roasted grapes. The restaurant has a warm and rustic ambiance and an extensive selection of wines from Napa and Tuscany, making it a perfect setting to wine, dine and relax. Located on Deck 14, Coastal Kitchen is complimentary and open for breakfast, lunch and dinner. It seats 128, and attire is smart casual
