From the Navigator

A very warm welcome aboard from the Captain and the Officers of Royal Princess. Today with confirmation of all passengers and crew onboard and with all of our pre-sailing checks complete, Royal Princess will let go her lines, and maneuver slowly off the berth and commence navigating slowly through the narrow buoyed channel outside the port limits and into the straits of Florida. As soon as the Local pilot is disembarked the Royal Princess will proceed across the straits and into the Providence Channel and then alter course to south towards Princess Cays.

Safety, Environment & Hygiene

Please do not throw anything (including food and cigarettes) over the ship's side. Cigarettes can be sucked back into the ship and cause fires. Other items may fall onto balcony staterooms occupied by other passenger

3:30pm - All Aboard! Royal Princess sets sail shortly after.
