

CRUISE COMPASS

Serenade of the Seas®

DAY 6 Saturday, November 28, 2015
St. George's, Grenada

THE ISLE OF SPICE WILL LURE YOU WITH ITS SWEET AROMA AND SCENERY.

The Spanish named it Granada, after the lush green town with the same name back home. The French modified it to Grenade. But in the end, it was the British who combined the two and dubbed this island paradise Grenada. And while the French name didn't stick, lots of other things did—from the French colonial architecture to the strong Catholic roots. The island's capital of St. George's is considered one of the most picturesque ports in the Caribbean with its mountainous terrain and rows of red-battered roofs. And if the sights don't wow your senses, the aroma will. The whole island is full of spice trees: nutmeg, cloves, cinnamon and even cocoa.

Once you've explored the charming colonial landmarks in St. George's, the rest of the island holds many beautiful attractions. On the east coast you'll find the quaint villages of Marquis and Soubise. The scenic south is home to the leading rum distilleries. While the west coast is where nutmeg is processed, among other spices. And everything in between is a paradise of gushing waterfalls and verdant vegetation, perfect for all kinds of adventure.
