Illegal Substance Warning

We wish to caution passengers that when ashore, drugs are available and frequently offered for sale. Please do not be coerced into purchasing these substances as in most cases you will be caught. Princess Cruises has a zero tolerance policy with regard to the unlawful possession of drugs and any passenger violating this policy will be immediately disembarked from the vessel. Local law enforcement agencies have become especially vigilant in their efforts to eradicate both drug abuse and trafficking and these have included subjecting passengers to a physical search on return to the ship. Should a passenger be disembarked for illegally possessing drugs, Princess is unable to offer any assistance in dealing with the local authorities or making homeward travel arrangements.

Alcohol Policy

Alcoholic beverages that are purchased at ports of call or duty free from the ship's gift shop will be collected for safekeeping and delivered to the passenger's stateroom on the last day of the cruise. A member of the ship's staff will be at the gangway to assist passengers with the storage of their shoreside alcoholic purchases while our Boutiques staff will assist passengers with shipboard alcoholic purchases. *Princess Cruises is not responsible for any alcoholic beverages confiscated by shoreside security staff. The Officer's Daily Log

Meet Maître d'Hotel Fabio Marcotti

Fabio Marcotti was born and raised in a picturesque Italian village in the Po Valley, an area world-renowned for its delicious cuisine.

After attending a prestigious catering school in Italy, Fabio spent time working in five-star hotels throughout Europe. He joined Princess Cruises in 1997 as a Junior Waiter trainee, achieving his goal of becoming Head Waiter within the year.

When he's not daydreaming about his favorite Alaskan itineraries, Fabio enjoys reading, and splits his time between Italy and Australia with his Australian wife Karyn.

By Maître d'Hotel Fabio Marcotti

Although visits to our exciting ports of call offer the chance to sample new and interesting local cuisine, we're always ready on board to provide you with plenty of fresh and flavorful options throughout the day.

For an early start, consider using your break fast card for in-room service. For a quick snack on sea days, look for our soft, fresh-baked cookies and ice-cold milk on deck. Later in the day, you can always recharge with Neapolitan-style pizza at our Pizzeria or burgers and fries at our Grill.

In 1648, the French and Dutch signed a treaty they still honor today, dividing St. Maarten (or St. Martin, as it's known by the French) in two, which renders it the smallest mass of land on the entire planet to be shared by two countries. Not far from Philipsburg, the capital of the Dutch side, is the St. Maarten Park & Zoo, which features approximately 200 tropical animals. The French side of the islands boasts The Butterfly Farm, where bright-colored flowers (and clothing) attract wide varieties of the delicate fluttering creatures. You can also go for an ocean horseback ride or even take a Segway tour along the beach!

I'd like to leave you with one more suggestion to enrich your experience during this cruise. Whether you're celebrating a birthday, anniversary or just a change of scenery, our Ultimate Balcony Dining provides a memorable breakfast or a four-course dinner with dedicated wait staff in your stateroom. In addition, I highly recommend the Crown Grill, our elegant steakhouse restaurant, and Sabatini's, offering Italian fine dining in a truly authentic setting. Or try the Ocean Terrace Seafood Bar, which serves up a variety of fresh seafood. All of these options are available for a small nominal charge. Please dial 138 for a reservation.

From the Navigator

Since departure from St Thomas, Royal Princess continued her passage with a South Easterly course. In the early hours this morning we passed approximately 13 nautical miles Northeast of the Island of St Croix. After embarking our local pilot, Royal Princess will make her final approach to our designated berth in Philipsburg, St Maarten. With all onboard Royal Princess will reciprocate her heading towards the North West and set courses for the continental USA.

Ship's Security Notice

In order to prevent unauthorized persons boarding the ship, you are required to carry your "Cruise Card" with you when going ashore. You will be asked to produce this at the gangway when you leave and return to the ship. Please ensure that you also have a Government-issued picture ID with you before leaving the ship as you will be required to show this at security checkpoints upon your return. Do not accept or bring onboard any parcels or packages from strangers. Before boarding, you may also be asked by our Security Staff to open parcels or handbags which you are carrying.

5:30pm - All Aboard! Royal Princess sets sail shortly after.
