

CRUISE COMPASS

Brilliance of the Seas[®]

DAY 4 Tuesday, September 3, 2013
Today we are in Cork, Ireland.

EXPERIENCE IRISH PRIDE LIKE NO OTHER IN CORK

Cork is to Dublin, what Barcelona is to Madrid. The rivalry is just as notorious between the capital and the "real capital", as locals jokingly refer to Ireland's second largest city. In fact, the whole region is known as the rebel county. Supposedly, they got the rep during the War of the Roses, in 1491, when Perkin Warbeck disastrously tried to overthrow the King of England, and took the whole town down with him. The city was originally built as a monastic community in the 6th century but quickly became a center for trade. Nowadays, this major Irish seaport is also an international tourist destination with many interesting sites.

Along the River Lee, you can admire Cork's picturesque quays and bridges. St. Patrick's Street is the main thoroughfare, with shops and fantastic examples of Georgian-style architecture. And the English Market has been around since 1610. Nearby, the Blarney Castle attracts thousands of visitors to its famous Blarney Stone. Legend has it that those who kiss the Stone of Eloquence will never again be at a loss for words.

Open Yourself Up To A New Experience

- Jump across the ages. That's the beauty of Europe. You can relive the medieval era one moment, and then revel in the Renaissance the next.
- Recharge your batteries. Whether it's taking a brisk walk around town or a treating yourself to a soothing massage, make today all about you.

Back Onboard

1. Open Climb, Rock Climbing Wall

Join Gower, your Sports Supervisor, as he challenges you to climb 30 feet high above the highest ship level, can you do it?
5:00 pm - 8:00 pm, Rock Climbing Wall, Deck 13.

2. 50's and 60's Rock & Roll Dance Party with Horizon

Join Horizon and your Cruise Director's Staff as we travel back to a time when poodle skirts and bobby socks ruled and rock 'n' roll was sweeping the country. 7:15 pm - 8:15 pm, Centrum, Deck 4.

3. 60 Seconds or Less Game Show

Get ready for 60 Seconds or Less, an outrageously funny game of beat the clock hosted by your Cruise Director's Staff. Cheer on contestants as they complete a physical challenge using ordinary household items—in not-so-ordinary ways! Join us at 9:45 pm, Colony Club, Deck 6.

GET ENTERTAINED

 Look inside for today's show schedule.

CREW FUN FACT

By now, you've made your way through the ship and found plenty of ways to spend your day. But how does the crew pass their free time? Turns out there's a whole other world in the lower decks, complete with a gym, bar, Internet café and cafeteria.

TODAY'S TIP

Give your mind and body some much needed time off. Let go of all the tension with a luxurious Spa treatment.

NOTICES

Discharge Of All Garbage Into The Sea Is Prohibited Except Provided Otherwise
The MARPOL Convention and domestic law generally prohibit the discharge of most forms of garbage from ships into the sea. Violation of these requirements may result in penalties. All garbage is to be retained onboard and placed in the bins provided.

Helpful Health Information - Norovirus

With seasonal viruses appearing in the United States, Europe and around the world, Royal Caribbean International, working in conjunction with the Centers for Disease Control, has instituted enhanced cleaning procedures onboard all its ships. You will likely see some of these activities during your cruise vacation. Medical experts strongly suggest that travellers pay close attention to washing their hands. The experts tell us that the best way to prevent colds, flu and gastrointestinal illnesses is to simply wash your hands thoroughly with soap and hot water after bathroom breaks and again before eating anything. Your cooperation and assistance is greatly appreciated.

United States Public Health (USPH) and Center for Disease Control (CDC) Regulation Information - Animal food such as beef, eggs, lamb, milk, pork, poultry or seafood that is raw or under cooked significantly increases risk of food borne illness to vulnerable and immunodeficient guests.
