DAY 1 | FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA | FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 2010
TONIGHT'S DRESS: SMART CASUAL | PARTLY CLOUDY 75F/24C

ALL ABOARD: 4:15PM

Captain "PJ" van Maurik Welcomes You Aboard

At age nine, "PJ" van Maurik gardened for a retired captain, whose seafaring tales and house of exotic objects captured his imagination. His parents were not keen on their son's decision to become a seaman and hoped he would change his mind if they let him crew during his school vacations. He crewed on his first ship, the Gaasterdyk, a Holland America Line cargo ship in 1970. The experience only strengthened his resolve, and he left home in 1972 to study at the Maritime Academy in Den Helder. Graduating in 1974, he joined Royal InterOcean Line, where the retired captain had worked. In 1978, he was commissioned as lieutenant in the Royal Dutch Navy and served two years on a patrol boat, sailing mostly in the North Sea. When his service duty in the navy was completed, he returned to his former company; it merged with Nedlloyd. He pursued further training at nautical colleges in Flushing and Amsterdam, graduating with his Master's Certificate in 1986. By 1993, he was captain on a small cargo vessel. He joined Holland America Line in 1994, coming "full circle" to the company that had given him his first sea-going experience. When on leave, Capt. van Maurik resides with his wife and son in Playa del Rey, California. He enjoys motorcycle riding in the Santa Monica Mountains and along the Pacific Coast Highway.

PASSENGER SAFETY BRIEFING
This mandatory exercise for all guests will be held at 4:15pm on deck 3. Please take the time to watch a safety video being shown on channel 26 of your stateroom television. All services are suspended during the drill. In the interest of safety, we ask that you please leave your life jacket in your stateroom for this drill.

TODAY'S MOVIE

OCEANS

1hr 40mins ♦ G

Directed by Jaques Perrin and Jacques Cluzaud

This ecological drama/documentary was filmed throughout the globe. Part thriller, part meditation on the vanishing wonders of the sub-aquatic worlds, this film shows a variety of images of undersea creatures-those that men consider to be both friend and foe.
