

A floor plan diagram of an escape room. The room is rectangular with a central area labeled "ESCAPE ROOM" in bold black text. This central area is enclosed by a decorative, cloud-like border. Above the central area is a small rectangular table. To the left and right of the central area are two identical sets of furniture, each consisting of a tall stack of four horizontal bars, a square table, and two vertical bars. The entire room is enclosed by a thick white border.
