

Wireless Internet Access

Norwegian Cruise Line offers wireless Internet access fleet wide, 24 hours a day. To help you get started, please refer to the useful information below.

How do I log in?

Once you are in range of the Wireless signal, simply connect to the broadcasted network. SSID (Network name):

- NCL_Internet_Getaway

Login:

- Select New or Returning User icon.
- Enter Name, Stateroom Number, Date of Birth.
- Password: Enter password of your choice. Use this password for all future log-ins.
- Select a Pricing Option and get connected!

Guests with two last names may need to use both last names without spaces to login. E.g. Jose Ramos Lopez → Jose (first name), Ramoslopez (Last Name)

Ipad / Iphone / Ipad Users:

Disable "Auto login" as follows

- Settings > Wifi > NCL_Internet_Getaway> Tap on the blue arrow .
- Turn off Autologin.
- Reconnect to NCL_Internet_Getaway,
- Open Safari, enter any URL address in the address bar (for example: www.yahoo.com)
- You will then be redirected to the Login Page.

Wireless access locations

Wireless service is available in all public areas and staterooms.

Don't forget to logout

To end your Internet session and discontinue billing, simply click on the "Log Out" button. If the "Log Out" button did not appear, simply type logout.com in your browser's address bar to immediately end your Internet session.

Norwegian Cruise Line is not responsible for any content transmitted via the Internet nor does it guarantee privacy or data security.

What is the cost?

Pay-As-You-Go

$0.25/minute

A $3.95 Activation Fee applies to all users upon your first login only. Printing is available at $0.50 per document. Please see below for more information.

SMTP Server and VPN Access

Microsoft Outlook and other mail client users may need to change the outgoing SMTP address to 172.31.0.2 VPN access is limited. PPTP and IPsec type VPNs may not connect.

Any other questions?

The Internet Café Manager is available to answer any questions you may have about wireless connectivity during the scheduled hours posted in the FREESTYLE DAILY.

