FROM THE NAVIGATOR

On departure from Split yesterday evening QUEEN VICTORIA steered south-easterly headings in the Adriatic Sea towards the island for Corfu. After a relatively short pilotage though the Kerkiraiki Thalasa, the stretch of water that separates Corfu from mainland Greece, QUEEN VICTORIA approaches her berth from the east. After a relaxing day in Corfu we slip our lines and set westerly courses across the Ionian Sea towards Pantelleria Channel, separating Sicily and Tunisia.

SUNRISE AND SUNSET

Sunrise: 6.14am / Sunset: 9.45pm

NAUTICAL FACT OF THE DAY

AS THE CROW FLIES

When lost or unsure of their position in coastal waters, ships would release a caged crow. The crow would fly straight towards the nearest land thus giving the vessel some sort of a navigational fix. The tallest lookout platform on a ship came to be know as the crow's nest.

CORFU, GREECE

ARRIVAL TIME: 9.30AM

ALL BACK ON BOARD: 5.30PM

Corfu is the most northern and second largest (after Cephalonia) of the Ionian Islands. It is the most densely populated area in Greece after the great urban centres of Athens and Thessalonica. With a population of around 115,000, the economy depends mainly on the tourist industry, with some agricultural production of olive oil, wine, vegetables and a unique type of fruit - the kumquat (brought from Japan). Legend has it that the island was Scheria or Drepani, home of the Phaeacians - Alkinoos's people - in Homer's "Odyssey". Information is sketchy on the early history of the island, although it is recorded that it changed hands many times, voluntarily becoming part of the Roman Empire during the 3rd century BC and with its position between Greece and Italy, attracting the attention of the Arabs, Lombards, Saracens, Normans, Sicilians and the Italian city-states of Genoa and Venice. In 1864 Corfu was ceded, with the other Ionian Islands, to Greece. From the early years of the century up until the Second World War, Corfu had rivalled Capri and Mallorca as the favourite Mediterranean destination of the European elite.

SHIPBOARD INFORMATION

SENIOR PRODUCTION MANAGER: JORGE KRIES RODRIGUEZ

Jorge was born in Mexico City and lived there until the age of 6. His mother decided at that point to seek a better future for herself and her son and they uprooted and made a new life in Toronto, Canada. At the tender age of 14, Jorge sought to get a job all in the interests of getting a date with a film producer's daughter. Although unsuccessful in the date, the mission did whet his appetite for the production world and he succeeded in getting his first experience in working on a film set through the blushing young lady's mother! Jorge maintained his fascination and enthusiasm with technical production – lots of lights, sound and scenery - at high school with active involvement in the school's Stage Crew Club, working on the school's productions whilst continuing to work on film sets and at the same time managing his own education. Inevitably, this all underlined the direction of his career and from these beginnings, Jorge went on to work on many feature films, such as X-men, Finding Forrester, Don't Say a Word, Driven, and Exit Wounds, as well as many commercials, music videos and short films. Life at sea began in 2001 when Jorge went to work as Stage Crew for Princess Cruises. Over the ensuing years Jorge worked on 12 different ships, including being part of the build team for 5. During his time at sea he has worked his way up to his current position as Senior Production Manager. He joined Cunard in 2006 and has been privileged to meet and work with many celebrities such as The Duchess of York, Sarah Ferguson; Lenny Kravitz; Dr Ruth; and James Taylor. Jorge spends much of his holiday time when not with family or on vacation, exploring to the very corners of his home city of Toronto.

WHEELCHAIR ASSISTANCE FOR SHORE EXCURSIONS

Guests are kindly reminded that wheelchair assistance (if required) will be provided to assist guests on and off the gangway only. As per the terms and conditions stated in the Cunard brochure, guests must be able to make their own way to the transportation on the pier, or be accompanied by a travel companion who is able to assist them.

TOILETS

QUEEN VICTORIA, as with most modern ships, has a vacuum operated toilet system. The pipe work of this system is much smaller than that used ashore. Whilst it is eminently suitable for its designed purpose, sanitary items, paper hand towels and items that are not rapidly biodegradable will cause obstructions. Your cooperation will be greatly appreciated.

WASTE BINS ON OPEN DECKS

The waste bins on the open decks are marked for separation of garbage. We kindly ask all guests to follow the descriptions marked on the bins when disposing of waste. Thank you.

USED BATTERIES

ENVIRONMENTAL NOTICE

Please be advised that Cunard has an Environmental Policy and is committed to the protection of the Marine Environment. Guests are kindly reminded that nothing is to be thrown overboard either at sea or in port. Some of the countries we visit will fine the ship heavily if anything is thrown overboard into the water. Guests are also kindly requested not to feed the seagulls or marine life from their balconies or the open decks. Please do not take any food ashore with you, as this is prohibited in many countries and may also incur you a fine. Please do not dispose of any chemicals, down the sinks or toilets and try to use up all shampoo and detergent bottles before disposing. This helps our recycling policy. Plastics, metals and paper are a few of the commodities that we try to recycle where possible. Your assistance in helping us look after the environment is appreciated.

Health advice

Should you experience any symptoms of vomiting or diarrhoea, please report this by telephone immediately to the Medical Centre from your stateroom by dialling 999/911. It is vitally important that everyone on board maintains a high standard of personal hygiene as the virus is easily passed on from person to person by touching surfaces such as handrails, door handles and elevator buttons. The single most effective means of prevention is frequent and thorough hand-washing. We recommend that you wash your hands using soap and warm water for at least 20 seconds then rinse and dry them well each time you use the toilet/restroom, after coughing or sneezing and before eating, drinking or smoking. Whilst alcohol hand sanitizers are no substitute for hand-washing, these have been provided for your use in certain food service areas around the ship. We thank you for your cooperation in this matter and wish you a happy and healthy voyage with us aboard QUEEN VICTORIA.

Guest identification cards

Please be aware that your Ship ID Card is magnetised. The cards can easily become demagnetised if they are held next to another magnet, for example a credit card, magnets on a handbag, mobile phones, cameras, or if two identification cards are held next to one another. Please carry them through the detectors with you when coming back on board.

Launderettes

Users of the Guest Launderettes are kindly requested not to leave their laundry in the machines for long periods of time, but to take it out shortly after the washing or drying cycle has finished, otherwise laundry may be removed from the machine and placed in a basket. Please return laundry baskets to the launderette as soon as possible to give all guests the chance to use the washing machines, dryers & baskets. Please also keep the noise down in consideration of the staterooms around the launderettes. Thank you for your cooperation

The Royal Court Theatre

Out of consideration for all our guests, the Royal Court Theatre is a smoke-free public area. It is not permitted to reserve seats prior to showtime. The use of video and audio recording equipment is prohibited because of copyright reasons, and flash photography is not permitted for the safety of our performers. Please be aware that some performances will include atmospheric effects. Thank you very much for your cooperation.
