In the Port of Civitavecchia, Italy.

Arrival Time: 5.30am

All Aboard Time: 7.30pm

Civitavecchia is your gateway to The Eternal City of Rome. Whilst it would take many lifetimes to really know Rome, you will have an opportunity to see many of the city's famous sites. Marvel at the incredible architecture and epic monuments or simply soak up the atmosphere of this remarkable city. Alternatively you can escape the hustle and bustle and venture into the beautiful countryside. Civitavecchia is a modern and elegant city on Italy's beautiful Tyrrhenian coast. For centuries it has served as a port for its mighty neighbour, Rome, from whose legendary seven hills grew an empire which came to dominate the known world. Civitavecchia spreads southwards as far as Santa Marinella and northwards through the vast pine woods to Tarquinia. In the hotels, the city centre, the lido and the bays to the north, there is always close contact with the sea. The city's main economic and leisure activities take place on the sea, which is plied by fishing and sailing boats. All major cruise lines start and end their cruises at this location and others stop for shore excursion days that allow guests to see Rome and Vatican sights, which are ninety minutes away. Welcome to Civitavecchia.
